BIOGRAPHY

The Full Story

Duan Asemota is a Canadian Olympic sprinter, 2025 Canadian 100m Champion, and 2026 Commonwealth Games silver medalist in the men's 4x100m relay. Born and raised in Ajax, Ontario, he made his Olympic debut in Paris 2024 as part of Team Canada's sprint contingent.

In 2025 he broke through to win the Canadian 100m title in 10.12 wind-legal, backing up a 10.03 wind-legal personal best from 2024. That same year he helped Team Canada set a national mixed 4x100m relay record of 40.07 at World Relays Guangzhou, then defended silver at World Relays Gaborone in 40.23 the following season.

At the 2026 Commonwealth Games in Glasgow, he ran the third leg of the heats as Team Canada took silver in the men's 4x100m final in 38.11, behind Australia.

Outside competition, Duan is a Right To Play ambassador, RBC Olympian, and founder of The Pocket Run, an annual community 5K in Ajax whose net proceeds support Right To Play Rwanda. He trains with Speed With Attitude under coach Charles Allen and races for Speed Academy in Pickering, Ontario.
